

JAN 30 1957

FOIAb3b

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75-0

ABILENE (Tex.) REPORTER
NEWS*Circ.: m. 31,277
S. 39,883*Front Edit Other
Page Page Page*Date:*Former Vice-Consul
Opens Office Here

CPYRGH

A former vice - consul with the U.S. Foreign Service, Melvin B. Jaschke, 33, has set up an Abilene investment securities office for James P. Speer & Co. of Santa Fe. N. M. Jaschke served with the foreign service in Madras, India. Jaschke spent more than two years in Madras, India, as vice-consul in the consulate general's office there. His primary job was reporting to the U.S. government on conditions and situations developing in that country.

He returned to this country in 1955, and worked in the Central Intelligence Agency until November of 1956. He then resigned to come to Abilene and represent the New Mexico investment firm.

Jaschke is married and has three children. Members of St. Paul Methodist Church, the family lives at 626 Lexington Ave.